

Tomislav Gabric Collection

2001-2004
1 small box

Tomislav Gabric was born in Yugoslavia in 1933. Mr. Gabric worked in construction in Italy before moving to France to study architecture. He moved to the United States in 1962 to start his career in Los Angeles, California. Tomislav Gabric and his wife Lea married in 1964. They have one daughter Carole. Mr. Gabric moved his architectural firm, Gabric & Associates to Corona around 1997. The firm is located at 903 South Ramona Ave in Corona. In addition to the firm, Mr. Gabric creates pen and ink drawings of historic Corona homes, his Croatian homeland, European monuments & buildings, and the California Missions. The sketches of Corona houses have included structures that exist only in photographs. His work was exhibited at the Corona Public Library in 2002 and Corona Heritage Park in 2004.
